Costa del Sol, Marbella

Casa Mary is a truly outstanding beachfront estate. It is, without question, one of the leading properties in southern Spain. Located in a small gated community with 24/7 security, adjacent to the renowned Marbella Club Hotel, this is truly the epicentre of luxury living in Marbella. It is only a few minutes from all of the amenities of both Marbella and Puerto Banus. The main entrance features a stunning domed, octagonal shaped marble hall area, with an imposing twin staircase leading to the upper level. The hall lead straight through to the main salon area with its impressive sea views, with additional living and television areas adjacent to it. This level also features a dining room, luxury kitchen with terrace dining area, cinema room, plus two bedroom suites with private entrance and terrace. One of the bedrooms has a bathroom which has been adapted for those with mobility issues. On the ground level there is a spacious lounge, indoor pool (heating possible), large jacuzzi, sauna, Turkish bath, showers and games room, as well as five double en-suite bedrooms with private terraces and garden area. The upper floor offers an exceptionally spacious master bedroom with office and lounge area, his and hers dressing areas and bathrooms, and a large private terrace affording spectacular sea views. This level also contains two additional suites with private terraces. Externally, the nearly 6000 metres of tropical grounds stretch down to the beach and contain a private tennis court plus large swimming pool. The services of a villa manager and daily housekeeping are included. The Golden Mile is the most exclusive area of Marbella, and is the epitome of opulence, luxury and extravagance. Some of the best beaches of Marbella lie alongside the coastal stretch of the Golden Mile which also boasts an elegant boulevard lined with palm trees, luxury mansions, large estates and palaces, first class gourmet restaurants and the finest of superior 5-star hotels Puente Romano and Marbella Club, each with exceptional facilities including beach clubs and spas, fine restaurants and landscaped gardens.
